LONGDON GUILTY.

He Will go to the Penitentiary for a Term of at Least Five Years.

The jury in the Longdon case came in this morning at 10 o'clock with a verdict of gullty, after being out eight hours. The sentence cannot be less than five years or more than twenty-one years. The case is a most unusual one of its kind. Longdon left the ministry and described his wife and family in order to live with a woman whose 13-year-old daughter he was found guilty of having
